National Seminar on Current Trends in Plant & Microbial Research (CTIPMR)- 2016

Theme

The Department of Botany, Raiganj University, is going to organize a two day National Seminar on Current Trends in Plant & Microbial Research (CTIPMR-2016) on the 16th and 17th of March, 2016. The main theme of the seminar is to highlight the recent advances made in the field of plant, microbial sciences and allied disciplines in this era of next generation sequencing, biotechnology and bioinformatics. The participants are encouraged to submit and present their research findings (but not restricted to) in all areas of plant sciences classical botany, plant pathology, genetics, microbiology, genomics, proteomics, bioinformatics, molecular biology, biochemistry, biotechnology, ecology, conservation biology and others. We are trying hard to make this a truly interdisciplinary event from the plant and microbial science perspective.

About Raiganj University:

The long-cherished dream of the people of Raiganj came true when Smt. Mamata Banerjee the Hon'ble Chief Minister of West Bengal announced to upgrade Raiganj College (University College) into a full-fledged University in late 2014 with Prof. Anil Bhattacharya as the first Vice Chancellor of Raiganj University. We have reformed our undergraduate syllabus and have started Honours Programme under semester system following CGPA Grade. The Higher Education Department, Government of West Bengal has already approved to open twenty one post-graduate departments.

Excited! So much organised & seminar. This is my first visit to institution after it became a university. Everything changed so much - so much improved. - I congratulate them!!

As seminar is indeed good. From boy to woman young university is not so different. They have been very comfortable. Thank you.

The seminar organized in such way that I am feeling in house. Organizers are so cordial and good that no problems are there. Food is good. Academic session is excellent with in depth lectures.

Thanking to all organizers. Knowledgeable presentations & Good organization, well conducted. Date: 23/3/17
